

Global Discourse

Books in the series were first published as special issues of our Global Discourse journal.

The Global Discourse book series is an interdisciplinary, problem-oriented series of applied contemporary thought operating at the intersection of politics, international relations, sociology and social policy. The series scope is broad, encouraging interrogation of current affairs with regard to core questions of distributive justice, wellbeing, cultural diversity, autonomy, sovereignty, security and recognition. Authors are encouraged to explore the international dimensions and implications of their work.

NEW IN THE SERIES

The Politics of Negative Emotions

Edited by Dan Degerman

HB £80.00 ISBN 9781529228793

EPUB £27.99 ISBN 9781529228809

Apr 2023

Negative emotions, including anger, fear and shame, have been at the heart of recent political events, such as the protests against COVID-19 restrictions.

This volume brings together perspectives from political science and philosophy to shed new light on the political faces of negative emotions. Engaging with real-world political events from Europe, the US and Africa, contributors critically evaluate much-discussed emotions, such as anger and fear, but also less prominent ones, such as frustration and discomfort.

Reflections on Post-Marxism

Edited by Stuart Sim

HB £85.00 ISBN 9781529221831

EPUB £29.99 ISBN 9781529221848

May 2022

First published as a special issue of Global Discourse, this book explores the theoretical position of post-Marxism and investigates its significance in recent global political developments such as Brexit, Trump and the rise of the far right. With valuable insights from international contributors across a range of disciplines, the book puts forward a strong case for the continuing relevance of post-Marxism and, particularly, for Ernesto Laclau and Chantal Mouffe's theory of radical democracy.

The Limits of Europe

Edited by Russell Foster and Jan Grzymski

HB £85.00 ISBN 9781529221794

EPUB £29.99 ISBN 9781529221800

Apr 2022

Over recent years, a series of challenges including Brexit, the rise of Euroscepticism and the Eurozone and refugee crises have manifested in landmark moments for European integration. First published as a special issue of Global Discourse, this edited collection investigates whether these crises are isolated phenomena or symptoms of a deeper malaise across the EU.
