

SERIES

Bristol studies in International Theory

Series Editors: Felix Berenskötter, SOAS, University of London, UK, Neta C. Crawford, University of Oxford, UK and Stefano Guzzini, Uppsala University, Sweden and PUC-Rio de Janeiro, Brazil

This series provides a platform for theoretically innovative scholarship that advances our understanding of the world and formulates new visions of, and solutions for, world politics.

Guided by an open mind about what innovation entails, and against the backdrop of various intellectual turns, interrogations of established paradigms and a world facing complex political challenges, this series aims to provoke and deepen theoretical conversations in the field of International Relations and demonstrate their relevance.

NEW IN THE SERIES

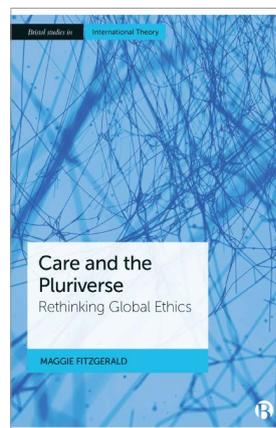

International Theory at the Margins

By Nicholas
Greenwood Onuf

HB £80.00 ISBN 9781529229813
EPUB £27.99 ISBN 9781529229837
Jan 2023

This book brings together thirteen of Nicholas Onuf's previously published yet rarely cited essays. They address topics that Onuf has puzzled over for decades, including the problem of materiality in social construction, epochal change in the modern world, and the power of language.

Care and the Pluriverse

By Maggie Fitzgerald

HB £80.00 ISBN 9781529220117
EPUB £24.99 ISBN 9781529220131
Jul 2022

This book examines the concept of the pluriverse alongside global ethics and the ethics of care in order to contemplate new ethical horizons for engaging across difference. Offering a challenge to the current state of the field, this book argues for a rethinking of global ethics as it has been conceived thus far.

Broken Solidarities

By Felix Anderl

HB £80.00 ISBN 9781529220216
EPUB £24.99 ISBN 9781529220230
Jul 2022

This is an analysis of the decline of the social movement against the World Bank and the rise of a new form of transnational rule. It observes the interactions of international organizations and social movements, showing how social movements are divided and ruled in the absence of a ruler.

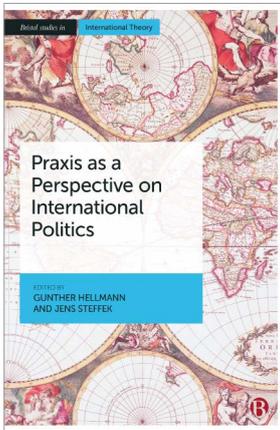

What in the World?

Edited by Mathias Albert and Tobias Werron

HB £79.99 ISBN 9781529213317
PB £26.99 ISBN 9781529213324
EPUB £26.99 ISBN 9781529213331
Jun 2022

This book develops a global perspective on social change. It brings together interdisciplinary scholars to provide a range of theoretical approaches, analytical takes and substantive research areas that offer new vistas for understanding change on a global scale.

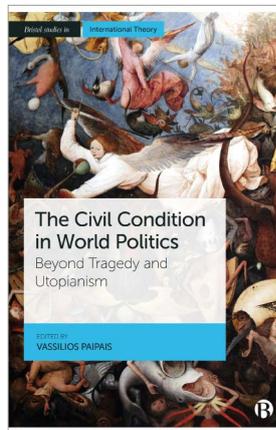

Praxis as a Perspective on International Politics

Edited by Gunther Hellmann and Jens Steffek

HB £48.00 ISBN 9781529220469
EPUB £19.99 ISBN 9781529220483
Apr 2022

Bringing together leading figures in the study of International Relations, this collection explores praxis as a perspective on international politics and law. It builds on the transdisciplinary work of Friedrich Kratochwil to reveal the scope, limits and blind spots of praxis theorizing.

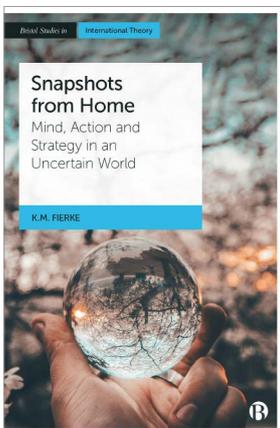

The Civil Condition in World Politics

Edited by Vassilios Paipais

HB £85.00 ISBN 9781529224177
EPUB £27.99 ISBN 9781529224191
Apr 2022

Bringing together an international team of contributors, this volume draws on international political theory and intellectual history to rethink the problem of a pluralistic world order.

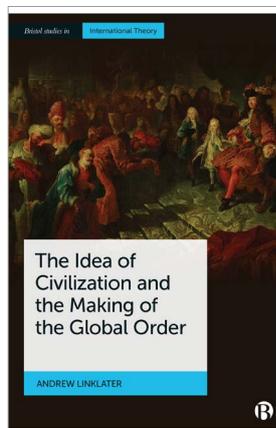

Snapshots from Home

By Karin M. Fierke

PB £27.99 ISBN 9781529222623
HB £85.00 ISBN 9781529222616
EPUB £27.99 ISBN 9781529222630
Jan 2022

This book brings the parallels between quantum physics and ancient Asian traditions to an investigation of mind, action and strategy. Engaging with theory and real-world problems, it explores what it might mean to navigate the potentials of a post-pandemic world.

The Idea of Civilization and the Making of the Global Order

By Andrew Linklater

PB £24.99 ISBN 9781529213911
HB £79.99 ISBN 9781529213874
EPUB £24.99 ISBN 9781529213881
Nov 2020

Exploring the significance of Norbert Elias's work, this book explains the principles of an Eliasian approach to civilization and demonstrates how the interdependencies between state-formation, colonialism and an emergent international society shaped the European 'civilizing process.'

Call for proposals

This major series showcases work that:

- engages in conceptual analysis and the creation of new concepts;
- harnesses empirical research to build theory;
- decentres existing paradigms and explores non-Western perspectives and approaches;
- revisits the ideas and arguments of canonical thinkers and/or the evolution of theorizing world politics;
- foregrounds ethical questions in world affairs and the ethics and politics of the practice of theorizing.

Within this scope, the series is open to different methods, and we encourage conversation with neighbouring fields and disciplines.
