

21st Century Standpoints

Series Editors: Les Back, University of Glasgow, Nasar Meer, University of Edinburgh and Mónica G Moreno Figueroa, University of Cambridge

Accessible, social and political commentary from Policy Press and the British Sociological Association.

21st Century Standpoints showcases lively, disruptive, progressive writers – established and emerging – who reach beyond the academy. Cosmopolitan in vision and scope, included works are based on striking ideas and robust evidence, providing a powerful platform for both scholarly and public debate. Bringing pressing public issues to the general reader, scholars and students, these books offer standpoints to shape public conversations at this time of social, political, economic and cultural disruption. They move beyond simple critique to propose better ways of understanding, and living in, our world.

NEW IN THE SERIES

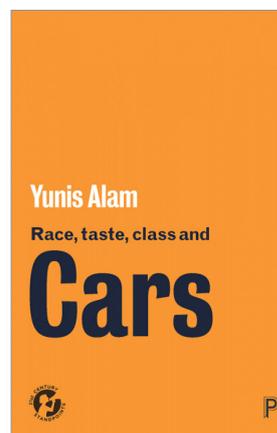

The Cruel Optimism of Racial Justice

By Nasar Meer

PB £14.99 ISBN 9781447363026
EPUB £14.99 ISBN 9781447363033
Mar 2022

Looking at examples across anti-racist movements and developments in nationhood/nationalism, institutional racism, migration, white supremacy and the disparities of COVID-19, Nasar Meer argues for the need to move on from perpetual crisis in racial justice to a turning point that might change deep-seated systems of racism.

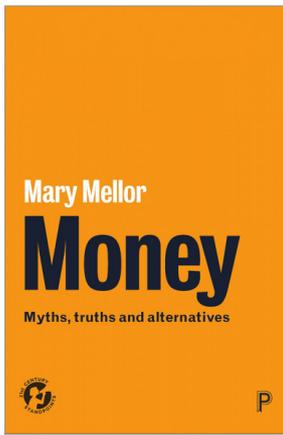

Race, Taste, Class and Cars

By Yunis Alam

PB £14.99 ISBN 9781447353478
EPUB £14.99 ISBN 9781447353492
Jul 2020

In subtle and complex ways, cars transmit and modify our identities behind the wheel. As a symbol of independence and freedom, the car projects status, class, taste and, significantly, embeds racialisation. Using fascinating research from drivers, including first-person accounts as well as exploring hip-hop music and car-related TV shows, Alam unpicks the ways in which identity is rehearsed, enhanced and interpreted.

Money

By Mary Mellor

PB £14.99 ISBN 9781447346272
EPUB £14.99 ISBN 9781447346296
Jul 2019

What does money mean? Where does it come from and how does it work? Mary Mellor examines money's social, political and commercial histories to debunk longstanding myths such as money being in short supply and needing to come from somewhere. She sets out a new finance system, based on green and feminist concerns, to bring radical change for social good.

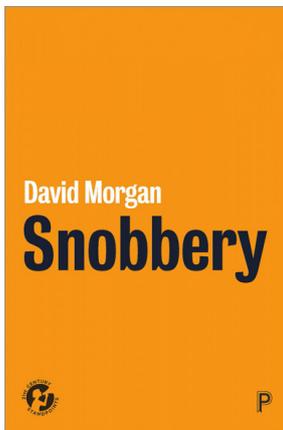

What's Wrong with Work?

By Lynne Pettinger

PB £12.99 ISBN 9781447340089
EPUB £12.99 ISBN 9781447341031
Apr 2019

What's Wrong with Work? shows that how workers are treated has wide implications beyond the lives of workers themselves.

Recognising gender, race, class and global differences, the book considers the ways formal work is often dependent on informal work and concludes by considering what might make work better.

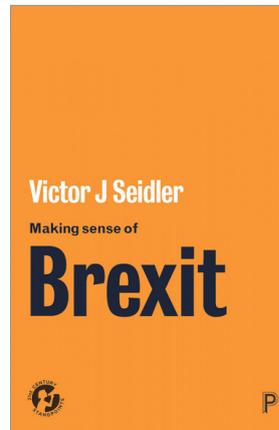

Snobbery

By David Morgan

PB £12.99 ISBN 9781447340348
EPUB £12.99 ISBN 9781447340362
Dec 2018

Snobbery matters because it is the way in which social divisions are built. In the current political environment, as social inequality grows, snobbery is becoming ever more pertinent. This book draws on literature, popular culture and autobiography as well as sociology and history to take a fresh and engaging look at this key social and cultural issue.

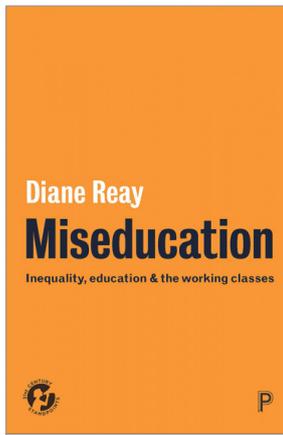

Making Sense of Brexit

By Victor Seidler

PB £15.99 ISBN 9781447345206
EPUB £15.99 ISBN 9781447345220
Jan 2018

After the shock decision to leave the EU in 2016, what can we learn about our divided and unequal society and the need to listen to each other? This engaging and accessible book addresses the causes and implications of Brexit. Seidler argues that we need new political imaginations across class, race, religion, gender and sexuality to engage in issues about the scale and acceleration of urban change and the time people need to adjust to new realities.

Miseducation

By Diane Reay

PB £13.99 ISBN 9781447330653

EPUB £13.99 ISBN 9781447330660

Oct 2017

In this book, Diane Reay, herself working class turned Cambridge professor, brings Brian Jackson and Dennis Marsden's pioneering Education and the Working Class from 1962 up to date for the 21st century. The book addresses the urgent question of why the working classes are still faring so much worse than the upper and middle classes in education, and vitally – what we can do to achieve a fairer system.

21st Century Standpoints is published in association with the British Sociological Association.
